The

Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Lee Polick

PTA membership chairmen are grateful for the cooperation of teachers, principals and parents for the cooperation received in the recent membership campaign. A variety of prizes have been awarded to winning classes in each school. Even though the campaign is over, it is not too late to join. Send your dues to your local unit membership chairman.

COUNCIL

Three hundred dollars is being sent to the Torrance Dental Health Association from PTA Council funds on vote of board members at the November meeting held at the YWCA.

At this Nov. 4 meeting Mrs. Seth Warden was ratified as School Education chairman and Mrs. A. C. Turner as auditor. There will be a Parent Education Workshop Nov. 30, 9:30 a.m. at the Crenshaw school. All unit Parent Education chairmen are urged to attend.

In December, W. J. Hanson, chairman of the Torrance Library Commission, will review the coming problems of Torrance Library Development.

CRENSHAW

Crenshaw Elementary PTA's Parent Education project for this month will be a conducted tour through the Educational Materials Building at 2335 Plaza Del Amo on Monday evening, Nov. 23. All those attending will meet at the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. This tour will enable parents to investigate the vocational material available to students in the Torrance Unified School District.

NORTH HIGH

The first Association meeting of North High PTA was held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, in the school gymnasium with Mrs. W. H. Bayliff presiding.

The program was a demonstration of the Boys' Physical Education program. "Warm-up" calisthenics and apparatus demonstrations were given by students under Mr. Don Dorsey's direction. Mr. Claude Ragsdale presented a group from the Adaptive P.E. program, showing corrective drill activities and individual exercises. Mr. Walter Hetz and Mrs. Melvina Kovicnik gave a doubles demonstration on the trampoline. Gymnastic teams then presented tumbling, parallel bars, high bars, ropes and rings.

The North High dance band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Jones, was featured between gym acts.

COLUMBIA

Columbia PTA was slightly overwhelmed and most grateful with the response at recent spaghetti dinner.

Next regular meeting is scheduled for Nov. 24 in the school cafeteria, 7:30 p.m.

Columbia, being a Point II School, we feel very fortunate to have the promise of Miss Gertrude Blackstock, of the State Department of Mental Hygiene to speak.

We urge all parents who have not had the opportunity of hearing Miss Blackstock

Parents Are Invited to Open House

North High PTA invites all parents and friends to attend an open house Tuesday, Nov. 17, in the gymnasium of the school at 7:30 p.m.

This will give parents an opportunity to inspect the educational facilities, visit classes and get acquainted with the faculty as part of the National Education Week.

This back-to-school program is a cooperative venture between the PTA and the faculty. Parents may go from room to room for the first three classes attended by their student. They will then meet in the cafeteria for an assembly program.

Music will be furnished under the direction of Robert L. Jones. The band will play several numbers including the Alma Mater. Flag salute will be led by Janet Sharp, student body president.

The chairman for the month is Mrs. T. Cartney, magazine and emblems chairman.

After assembly, parents will continue the full schedule of classes until the bell rings and they will gather in the cafeteria for refreshments.

speak to attend the meeting, as she is well informed on the retarded child and well qualified to answer many questions on the subject.

FERN-GREENWOOD

The invitation of "Have Hobby—Will Share" is now issued to all friends, neighbors and members of the Fern-Greenwood PTA. This event will be held at the Greenwood school on Nov. 19, preceded by a necessary short business meeting at 7:30 p.m.

A demonstration or exhibit of your hobby is needed. Maybe someone will find your hobby the one they would like to start. We know they will find them interesting. A great variety of displays will be needed to make "Hobby Night" a success. Notices will be sent home for you to indicate whether you will be able to participate. Please return these to the school as soon as possible. If you do not receive a notice please send a note to the PTA at school or contact one of the board members.

LINCOLN

Mrs. James Orr, newly elected president of Lincoln School PTA, called her first executive board meeting at her home on Tuesday, Oct. 19 for a pot-luck luncheon.

Special guests were Walter Buettgenbach, principal and Mrs. William Poser, council president.

Program chairman, Mrs. W. T. Mooney, announced that Sherman E. Waldrip, assistant to Superintendent of Business of Torrance Unified School District, was to speak at the Nov. 12 association meeting.

The following chairmen were ratified to serve on the newly formed board: Mrs. Howard Sharman, hospitality; Mrs. Harold Erickson, publicity; Mrs. Cass Sewell, parliamentarian; Mrs. Richard Anderson, room representative; Mrs. B. Sands, inspirational; Mrs. Michael Apadaco, art; Mrs. L. A. Sim, budget and finance; Mrs. Richard Anderson, citizenship; Mrs. T. Knighten, magazines and emblems; Mrs. Bob Roberts, honorary life; Mrs. Arnold Stohlman, health; Mrs. Raymond Meyer, music; Mrs. Garrison Ruby, parent education; Mrs. David Osterbeck, Newsletter.

RIVIERA

Lloyd Jones, curriculum consultant for the Torrance Unified School District, spoke on "Understanding the Learning Process" at the October meeting of Riviera PTA.

This year's carnival was held on Halloween and was a huge success according to Mrs. Carl Whistler, carnival chairman.

The October board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Allen Crosby, 5201 Paseo del Pavon, Torrance.

YUKON

Yukon PTA executive board members met Nov. 12. Following the business meeting, holiday plans were discussed.

Gaiety, goodies to eat and goblin noises prevailed at the "Yukon Days" carnival held on Oct. 23. Mrs. Victor Moore, the ways and means chairman, held a post-carnival meeting on Oct. 28 at the home of Mrs. Glen Mahoney. Each booth chairman gave an evaluation of her booth.

ARLINGTON

Arlington Elementary PTA held its first association meeting of the year, Oct. 8.

Jefferson

Jefferson PTA November meeting will feature a presentation of the multigrade classroom, more commonly known as "The Little Red School House," by Roland Petrat, principal of Steele School, Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria. Since its inception at Walteria School, "The Little Red School House" program has captured considerable attention as a lively topic in many leading publications across the nation, including Time and Life. Torrance Unified School District now has a total of seventeen multigrade classrooms in its various elementary schools.

Following Mr. Petrat's talk, there will be group discussion. Visitors will be welcomed. A short business meeting will follow the discussion and refreshments will be served.

TORRANCE ELEMENTARY

The auditorium was well filled for the first meeting of the year at Torrance Elementary School. Mrs. W. R. Campbell presented the program "Aloha Means Hello."

The program honoring the new state of Hawaii began with Hawaiian dances by Brownie Troop 21. Brownie fathers were on hand to take advantage of hula lessons given by their daughters. Following this on stage production, a movie entitled "Holiday in Hawaii" was shown.

Rollan Miller played a saxophone solo accompanied on the piano by Robin Bingham. During the business meeting the association voted to continue sponsorship of the Girl and Boy Scout Troops, to support the Council scholarship and milk funds and the budget for the coming year was adopted.

Teachers were introduced by Stanley Roberts, principal. Third and fourth grade mothers dressed in native costume served pineapple up-side-down cake and Hula punch at the close of the meeting.
